Amdram is Murder – Hatherleigh Players

FRIDAY 3RD | 7.30^{PM} | COMMUNITY CENTRE | £15 INCLUDING SUPPER

Hatherleigh Players are performing a Murder Mystery play 'Amdram is Murder' with supper. Can you collect clues and work out whodunnit? Prizes for guessing correctly!

From Stone to Paint: A Day with Earth Pigments

SATURDAY 4TH | 10^{AM}–5^{PM} | OLD SCHOOLS | £30 | BOOK ONLINE

A one-day introduction to making colour from the landscape with artist Jessica Lennan. We'll start indoors learning to recognise and test earth pigments, then head out around Hatherleigh Moor Brook to find our own. After lunch, we'll grind stones into pigment and turn it into watercolour paint – a slow, hands-on process. Leave with your own handmade paint from the place itself.

All tools and paper provided; bring a sketchbook if you'd like. Please bring lunch (tea, coffee and biscuits provided). Group size: 12. Buy your ticket online: hatherleighfestival.co.uk/booking

Landmarks in Lino!

Wristband = £5 OFF

SUNDAY 5TH | 4^{PM} | OLD SCHOOLS | AGE 15+ | £15* | BOOK ONLINE

As part of the 2026 exhibition Small is Mighty (see page 8) which is a celebration of postcards and small-but-splendid artworks, you're invited to create a piece that could feature in the show.

Ahead of the exhibition weekend, Hatherleigh Artist and 'Free Range Art' Teacher, Netty Holwill, will be running this hands-on session where you'll design, carve and print your own lino-cut artwork inspired by iconic landmarks. The finished prints will then be framed and displayed as part of the Small is Mighty exhibition (collect from The Pottery after the Festival).

Turn something iconic and recognisable into a hand-carved, hand-printed graphic print. Choose from a selection of images and we will guide you through the rest. All materials provided.

Book online: hatherleighfestival.co.uk/booking

FESTIVAL WEEK...

From War Horse to Working horse: A History of the Shire Horse – Tea & Talk at Lower Upcott Farm

TUESDAY 7TH | FROM 5^{PM} | LOWER UPCOTT FARM | £12* INCLUDING REFRESHMENTS | BOOK ONLINE

Join the festival team and local farmer, Ben May, for a fascinating look at the history of the Shire horse. From their time as war horses until they were the tractors of their time and now their place today on the 'at risk' register.

Meet these majestic animals up close, ask questions, and see how Ben continues to use their strength in sustainable, practical ways to maintain their relevance into the future. There will also be an opportunity for those who wish to have a brief tour of the market garden, all worked with the shire horses.

After the talk, relax and enjoy afternoon tea al fresco! (refreshments provided). Booking & directions: hatherleighfestival.co.uk/booking

Wristband = £2 OFF

Book by email: angelsandpetals@btinternet.com

Spork! And the return of the Poetic Hunts!

THURSDAY 9TH | FROM 7PM | AGES: 14+ | THE SQUARE | FREE/DONATION*

Join Edward Tripp and Chris White for another big Poetic Hunt! A second serving of silly and subversive comedy, poetry, live music and filth.

*Free with a Wristband

This event will feature a guest spot from musical comedian Mimi, an Audience Limerick competition, a "community poem" created by you. Yes, you. Some surprising proclamations from Roz the town crier, a panda in a headlock, and a few references to Noel Edmunds. This is poetry for people who don't like poetry. And comedy for people who aren't too discerning

AGE GUIDANCE
14+

Get involved in the Limerick Slam by writing an original limerick ahead of the night and reading it onstage. The best 2 limerick writers will then have around 30mins to write a new limerick on the spot. The winner will receive a box of broken biscuits.

This event is rec 14+ because of some adult content & language.

See website for more: hatherleighfestival.co.uk/spork

MUSIC IN THE SQUARE ALL AFTERNOON & EVENING

Mocean – Afro-Brazilian Inspired Percussion Powerhouse!

12.30PM | TOWN SQUARE

Back again to get you in the festival spirit with their infectious energy! Mocean is a community percussion band paying tribute to the sounds of Brazil - from samba to the ancestral beats of the NE, turning up the temperature with a little Jungle, Funk and DnB. We cannot wait for them to raise the roof as our first live act of the day!

The Felicity Footloose Show!

1.30PM | TOWN SQUARE

The Felicity Footloose Show is full of fun frolics and daredevil antics!!

Felicity Footloose lives in the 80s and just wants to dance!! Watch as she juggles, dances and performs daredevil acrobatics to try and impress her hero Johnny! She'll even go as far as to hang from her toes and juggle knives upside down. All to a retro 80s soundtrack.

Matt Tanner

2.30PM | TOWN SQUARE

Matt Tanner brings an energetic acoustic approach to classic 90s songs from acts such as Oasis, Radiohead, The Verve and Natalie Imbruglia. Expect a few sing-along anthems laced with a big dollop of cheese.

ALSO LOOK OUT FOR... THE MUSEUM OF ROADSIDE MAGIC

Step inside this travelling museum dedicated to the folk magic of vehicles and journey-making. Discover charms, costumes and curiosities from the only archive of its kind – and try on a Roadlore costume for luck.

Dave Holwill

3.30PM | TOWN SQUARE

Would it be Festival without him? No, it very definitely wouldn't. Back once again with the not-so-ill behaviour, it's our wonderful Dave! Although he's been playing for us for years now, we're still really not sure what to promise here but his sets showcase everything from the sublime to the ridiculous!

Exeter Jazz Orchestra

5.45PM | TOWN SQUARE

After a brilliant performance last year, this Exeter-based Mass Jazz Orchestra is back to lift the energy to a whole new level in the marquee. With 20+ instrumentalists filling the square with sound, it promises to be BIG! Expect punchy brass, soaring solos and a set that'll have the whole crowd on their feet.

Drums4Health – Feel the Beat, Move Your Body

4.30PM | TOWN SQUARE | FREE/DONATION*

Get ready for something completely different. Drums4Health is a fun, inclusive and energising experience that brings together movement and drumming in a way that gets everyone involved. No experience needed – just pick up a pair of sticks and join in. Seated or standing, this low-impact session is designed for all ages and abilities. It's rhythm, connection and feel-good energy that will leave you feeling elevated, refreshed and fully alive.

Free with a Wristband

Diving for Pearls

7.45PM | TOWN SQUARE

Diving for Pearls are an explosive and inventive six-piece band of hugely experienced musicians, featuring a horn section, who meld styles, genres, and influences to play simply some of the best music from (mostly) the 80s and 90s.

Da Fuchaman and his Fire Blaze Band

9.30PM | TOWN SQUARE

Headlining Festival this year, along with his Fire Blaze Band is Zemroy Thomas, better known by his stage name Da Fuchaman, is an internationally renowned Jamaican reggae singer, songwriter and member of the Rastafari movement.

Da Fuchaman's music is deeply rooted in spirituality and he prides himself on spreading love and positive vibrations to the masses everywhere he goes.

Party On with DJs Steve Attfield & Theo Fields

10.30PM – LATE | TOWN SQUARE

From 10.30pm till midnight in the square, DJs Steve Attfield and Theo Fields will be bringing a b2b set with an electric mix of house music, sprinkled with some soul/funk and disco vibes – that the Hatherleigh crowd love!
